IMPORTANT

- Foreigners should keep this portion of the immigration form at all times. In case of loss carry out the replacement proceeding.
- This FMM does not vouch for legal stay, it only has statistical purposes for a foreigner holding a non-ordinary passport, as well as for the holders of current immigration forms.
- For a foreigner holding a Mexican visa that enables him to obtain an FM3 or FM2, this FMM vouches for his legal stay for 30 days as of entry. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT that you exchange this FMM for an FM2 or FM3 immigration form within the time period indicated at the Regional Delegation of the INM closest to your residence. Otherwise, you will be in an irregular situation and will be subject to the sanctions provided for in the General Population Law.
- For foreigners who were documented as Transmigrants, Local Visitors, Provisional Visitors or in some immigration characteristic or form with a maximum stay of up to 180 days, the FMM is evidence of their legal stay in Mexico and should be handed in upon departure from the country.
- To carry out lucrative activities a prior permit from immigration is required. Tourists, Transmigrants, Local Visitors and Provisional Visitors MAY NOT CARRY OUT LUCRATIVE ACTIVITIES. Transmigrants MAY NOT CHANGE THEIR IMMIGRATION STATUS OR CHARACTERISTIC.
- Students or Ministers of Religion or Religious Associates documented with the FMM have the obligation to register in the National Register of Foreigners within thirty days following their admittance.
- A Visitor who is a Businessperson wishing to prolong his stay in Mexico and the circumstances that motivated his entry have not changed, may request the granting of an FM3.
- Upon admission to the country, the foreigner is obliged to comply strictly with the conditions established in his immigration form, with regard to the activities he will carry out and his place(s) of residence, as provided for in Articles 34 and 43 of the General Population Law. In accordance with Articles 9, 11 and 33 of the Political Constitution of the United Mexican States, he may not interfere in the country's political affairs; he may enter, leave, travel and change residence in the Republic without identity card, passport, safe-conduct or other similar requirements; this right is subordinate to the powers of the judicial authority in cases of criminal or civil responsibility, and those of the administrative authority with regard to the limitations imposed by the laws on emigration, immigration and general health of the Republic. The Executive of the Union has the exclusive power to cause to leave the national territory, immediately and without any need for prior proceedings when he deems inadvisable the presence of pernicious foreigners resident in the country.
- The holder of this document enjoys, without any discrimination whatsoever, the guarantees granted by the Political Constitution of the United Mexican States; likewise, with the exception of the Transmigrant, he has the right to acquire fixed or variable income securities and make bank deposits, as well as acquire urban real estate and real rights on same, with the restrictions set forth in Article 27 of the Constitution.
